

CHART YOUR OWN COURSE.

GINGER COVE

Live your own idea of success.

“We absolutely love the daily rhythm of life here. If anything, we wish we’d moved sooner.”

– Bill & Nancy

Hugging the wooded shores of Gingerville Creek, a quick drive from the delights of Historic Annapolis, Ginger Cove is a welcoming enclave, home to some of the area’s most discerning and accomplished individuals.

They've chosen Ginger Cove because it's the ideal destination to chart their own course on their own terms. As you come to understand this special place for yourself, we hope you'll come to see yourself here, too.

Every day is your own to create.

At Ginger Cove, the interests and curiosity of each resident are encouraged to flourish. Whether you love to read, play bridge, work on your computer, or go boutique shopping downtown, your interests are paramount and we're here to support you.

Dining that reflects your own tastes.

The wide-ranging interests of Ginger Cove residents extend to their palettes, too. Fresh, locally sourced ingredients form the basis for each meal prepared by our Executive Chef and the culinary team, whether it's an elegant entrée in the Chesapeake Dining Room, a tasty club sandwich in the Skipjack Dining Room or a refreshing cocktail in the Bugeye Bar.

And you can always enjoy a meal on your own in one of the area's many fine restaurants.

“Our team looks to create and deliver exceptional experiences each and every day. Residents, many of them excellent cooks themselves, are appreciative and share their recipes.”

– Executive Chef Pierre

Your wellness is our focus.

So many factors contribute to one's sense of wellness. Components include quality health care, of course, but also being active, engaged, intellectually stimulated, emotionally nurtured and following a nutritious balanced diet. The International Council on Aging defines wellness as a reflection of "our ability to understand, accept and act upon our capacity to lead a purpose-filled and engaged life."

At Ginger Cove, the wellness program can help you build your confidence, creativity and resilience, creating a stronger you.

Just a few of the ways each day is an opportunity to thrive.

Make your home your own.

While your social life here will be active, you'll also want to know that your Ginger Cove apartment home will meet your needs for luxury, relaxation and space, reflecting your own taste and style.

Floor plans include enclosed sunrooms, full kitchens with stainless steel appliances, and roomy living areas and bedrooms. Additional storage comes with each apartment. New carpeting and paint of your choosing is standard.

- Boating, crabbing and fishing at the deep water dock
- Swimming and water aerobics in the indoor aquatics center
- Needlework, gardening, painting, chorus and woodworking
- Cardio and strength training, group class or personal trainer
- Symphony, theatre and museum excursions
- Guest lectures, religious life, book club and parties

Charting your own course means making your own decisions.

You've always been in charge of your own finances. That's why Ginger Cove is so attractive to planners like yourself. Privileged access to a continuum of care on campus, should you ever need it, takes away the worry about burdening your loved ones with important decisions. The Ginger Cove Residency Agreement, with our popular 90% return of capital plan, preserves your estate and gives you predictable monthly costs through either the Type A Life-Care Plan or the Type C Fee for Service Plan.
