Your best life is all around you.

Ginger Cove sits at the nexus of Annapolis' historic charm, a revitalized Baltimore, and the monumental happenings in Washington, D.C.

At Ginger Cove, you'll find a community beautifully balanced. Part nature and nurture, it's a destination where you can live your best life.

Here, horizons stretch in every direction. You can immerse yourself in well-loved pursuits and explore new territories. Relax in the spa, and dig in the garden. Play croquet all day; dance all evening.

What's better than the luxury of time? Our thoughtfully crafted services and amenities ensure life runs smoothly. Even as you strike out on your own adventures, you'll feel better knowing all is secure.

Find yourself at Ginger Cove. Whether you're an entrepreneur or restauranteur, an artist or architect, a statesman, sailor, or something in between, join us. You'll find yourself delighted, inspired, and challenged – and, most importantly, among friends.

Plan your next adventure.

Wondering what to do at Ginger Cove? You'll find oh-so-many programs and spaces to gather, learn, play, create, volunteer, and be entertained. It's a community lovingly curated by residents. You lead; we follow.

Enjoy wellness built into every day. Sure, you can join a fitness class, work with a personal trainer, and take water aerobics in the aquatics center, but you'll also find personal garden spaces, a dock for fishing, and trails and pathways for walking, hiking and pedaling.

Since connecting with others is part of healthy living too, you'll cheer for happy hours and friendly games of competition – croquet, bocce ball, darts, billiards and pingpong. Afterward, we'll satisfy your appetite with a delicious dining experience from our expert culinary team.

Ginger Cove plays an annual intergenerational croquet game with St. John's College and the United States Naval Academy.
